Dr. Loanc Fox is certified by edge in medical oncology and practices at our river bank and Macclenny. Originally from southern Florida, Dr. Fox completed his degree of science in Biology of the Auburn University before getting his medical doctor at the southern Alabama university. After completing two bags with hematology / oncology, Dr. Fox joined CSNF as one of his first doctors in 1994. With over 17 years of clinical research experience and 25 years as an oncologist, Dr. Fox is incredibly passionate to share the oncology field ... progress with his patients. "The progress that this field has created in recent years alone has been incredible," says Dr. Fox. "It is very special to be able to provide those to our patients. The end of the day, Dr. Fox is proud of what his team was able to do for a particular patient that day: "It is not just the doctor, concerns the staff of the reception, our incredible nurses and incredible social workers; All those people work as much as I do to provide the patient with the best experience, day after day. When he is not working, Dr. Fox enjoys passing time with her husband and two children who grow up. He also started promoting kittens from human society, which has quickly become a favorite past.
